Transforming healthcare with innovation

Primary Healthtech Private Limited: A success story from Assam

Guwahati: The achievements of startups in Assam serve as a testament to the growing influence of innovation and entrepreneurship in the region. Over the past few years, Assam has witnessed a surge in the number of startups across various sectors including agriculture, healthcare, education etc. Primary Healthtech Private Limited, a healthcare startup from Kamrup, Assam, has made remarkable strides in healthcare diagnostics. Founded in 2018 by Sahil Jagnani and Dr. Pooja Poddar, the startup is rapidly growing with a vision to develop next generation healthcare predictive diagnostics, which is affordable and accessible to the masses. The startup has been a game changer in its field. Winner of the DPIIT Startup India National Startup Award 2022, this innovative startup has developed 'Mobilab,' an affordable, portable IoT-enabled smart multi-diagnostic device tailored for chronic disease management. Mobilab can analyze over 25 health parameters, diagnosing conditions related to the kidney, liver, pancreas, and heart. By leveraging nanotechnology, advanced optics, and optimized algorithms, the device ensures accurate diagnostics with minimal sample volume. Additionally, Mobilab generates real-time data, electronic health records, and comprehensive patient profiles. These insights, powered by predictive algorithms, are invaluable for effective disease monitoring and management, showcasing the startup's pioneering approach to accessible healthcare innovation. This achievement highlights the growing influence of innovative startups in Assam and beyond.

BSF DG reviews security status of Guwahati Frontier

Assam Rising, Guwahati, January 15: The Director General of Border Security Force (BSF), Daljit Singh Chaudhry reviewed the current security scenario and operational preparedness along the Indo-Bangladesh international border, during his one-day visit to BSF Guwahati Frontier. The Director General was briefed by Sanjay Gaur, Inspector General, BSF Guwahati Frontier and staff officers about operational preparedness, measures to combat various challenges on the Indo-Bangladesh international border and discussed various remedies to control trans-border crimes. Chaudhry applauded the tireless efforts and dedication of bordermen in safeguarding the borders as well as the efforts made by BSF Guwahati Frontier to control crime along the Indo-Bangladesh International Border. The DG reiterated the BSF's commitment to ensuring the security and safety of the nation, particularly in light of the challenges arising from the ongoing unrest in Bangladesh. He urged all personnel to remain vigilant and continue their exemplary work in maintaining the integrity of the Indo-Bangladesh international border. The BSF has intensified surveillance along the unfinished stretches of the India-Bangladesh border to prevent illegal infiltration, smuggling, and human trafficking amid ongoing instability in Bangladesh. Despite these challenges, BSF personnel remain on duty 24x7. According to officials, seasonal challenges, such as fog and heavy rainfall during the monsoon and winter, make monitoring even more difficult. However, the BSF has installed CCTV cameras and deployed advanced sensors to detect attempts to cross the border.
